Stream all the latest content via Android TV™¹

Xiaomi TV A2 32" comes with Android TV™ built-in, giving users instant access to 400,000+ movies and shows from Netflix, Prime Video, YouTube, and thousands of Google Play apps. The TV also supports Chromecast built-in and Miracast, meaning no more small screens: users can simply cast content from their smartphones, tablets, or laptops to the TV.

Smart Built-in Google Assistant²

Xiaomi TV A2 32" functions as a smart home hub, with Google Assistant built-in,² giving users the ability to seamlessly control the device with voice commands, check their calendar, manage daily tasks, and even command connected AIoT devices through the TV. With 360° Bluetooth remote control, the TV can respond to commands regardless of the remote control angle. Dedicated buttons for Netflix and Prime Video make it quicker than ever to get straight into the content users want to watch.
